MUTUAL AID FIRE DRILL IS HUGE SUCCESS

ANSWER TO WEST PLAN IS AWAITED

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP) — Success or failure of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference turned today on Andrei Gromyko's reaction to a new Western offer for a face-saving deal on Berlin.

The Soviet Foreign minister was to give his answer to the latest Western proposal in secret session with his opposite numbers from the United States, Britain and France.

If Gromyko says yes—or even maybe—the Geneva meeting soon may produce an agreement leading to an early East-West summit conference. The Western price for that is an end to the Soviet threat to freeze the Allies out of West Berlin.

If Gromyko says no, the foreign ministers conference probably will end Thursday or Friday without an agreement to go to the summit. This would revive the threat of serious trouble over the future of West Berlin, surrounded by Communist territory 110 miles from West Germany.

The five-point plan representing the final Western bid for agreement was delivered to Gromyko's headquarters Tuesday night.

The heart of the proposal, Western informants said, is a provision for the Big Four to guarantee the existing arrangements on Berlin.

The West is asking the Soviets to promise to avoid any action that would menace its air, rail, and road linkages between Berlin and West Germany.

That is less demanding wording than any used in similar proposals put to Gromyko.

Thirty Terrified Passengers On Hijacked Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "I was in the front, near the pilot's station, when I heard someone talking rough in Spanish," said Gabriel Hajian.

"I turned to look and I saw this dark man with dark glasses and a shiny gun."

Hajian was describing the flight of 30 terrified passengers, including several Americans, on a hijacked Cubana Airlines plane Tuesday night.

"He talked like a crazy man — fast, fast. He kept mentioning Miami to the pilot. At first the pilot shook his head, but the man put the gun close to the pilot's head. Then the pilot turned and banked the plane and the man with the gun smiled."

Women sat terrified, their hands over their eyes, during most of the 75-minute flight from Havana with the six soldiers from former Cuban President Fulgencio Batista's army in command, Hajian said.

Five Children Burn To Death in Chicago Fire

CHICAGO (AP) — Five children burned to death today when a three-alarm blaze ripped through a four-story apartment building on the West Side.

The victims, all Negroes, were "trapped in apartments on the third and fourth floors of the 200-foot-long structure at 2301-2319 W. Madison St."

Firemen put out the fire after an hour. Authorities said a check of the building indicated all of the other occupants reached safety.

The Rev. Limestone Gordon of New Brighton was elected for a one-year term as permanent clerk.

Personal Income of Americans Hits High

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government announced today that the personal income of all Americans rose in May to a record annual rate of $376,200,000,000. The increase for the month was three billion on an annual basis.

Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss issued a special statement which said:

"This high level of purchasing power is a basis for the business confidence so generally evident, and for the strong hope for further increases in employment."

The Commerce Department report was the second this week to point up the transition of the economy from recovery to a new boom.

GOV. LONG WILL RETURN TO LOUISIANA

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Earl K. Long arrived in a Louisiana Air National Guard plane today to take her husband, the Louisiana governor, back home.

Mrs. Long was accompanied by three doctors, Maj. Gen. Raymond Hufft, and Mrs. William Lockhart, the governor's executive secretary. Hufft is adjutant general of Louisiana.

Mrs. Long told newsmen that soon as things can be gotten ready, they would leave.

Long shouted to newsmen from his second floor room in the psychiatric clinic of John Sealy Hospital earlier today that the group would leave for Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans at 11 a. m.

The New Orleans States-Item quoted an unidentified source as saying Long would be taken to Ochsner's for a deteriorating heart condition.

But Long's attending physician, who asked not to be identified, denied any report of Long's having a heart attack while in Galveston.

"He has had no heart attack here at all," the doctor said. "His illness has been somewhat of a strain on his heart. But his heart is not in any serious condition."

Yoho Is Fired from Compensation Bureau

HARRISBURG (AP) — William L. Batt Jr., secretary of labor and industry, today fired Robert Yoho from his $7,500 a year job as administrative officer in the State Workmen's Compensation Bureau.

"I have fired Mr. Yoho, effective at the close of business today," said Batt, reached at his home.

"It is our belief that his usefulness to the department has been ended," said Batt. He added the official text of his dismissal letter to Yoho would be released later today.

Political Amateur Wins Election in Denver

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A political amateur making his second try for elective office was named Denver's next mayor in a special runoff election Tuesday.

A heavy turnout of voters chose Richard Y. Batterton for the four-year, $14,000-a-year job.

Batterton, 55, is manager of public works and the top officer in the present Cabinet of Mayor Will F. Nicholson, who did not seek re-election. Batterton defeated City Council President George A. Cavender.

By JOHN RODERICK

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP) — A U.S. Navy plane crew told today how Communist MIG fighters raked their patrol plane with 15 to 20 bursts of machinegun fire and sent it limping home with two of its four engines out and one of the 14 crewmen wounded.

The airmen told a news conference two "or possibly three" Red-starred jets—their nationality still a mystery—had swooped down suddenly on the turbo-prop P4M Mercator while it was over international waters, 45 miles off the east coast of North Korea Tuesday.

The tail gun was knocked out and the gunner wounded on the second of six Communist runs before he could open fire. The plane's two other 20mm. machineguns were unable to fire because of missing parts.

The attack was broken off as the plane started to limp back to Japan. It was met by two Air Force Sabre Jet fighters that answered its call for help, but the MIGs had vanished long before.

The injured tail gunner, Aviation Electronics Mate 2.C. Donald E. Corder, 20, of Jacksonville and Farmer City, Ill., suffered more than 40 painful but not critical wounds from shrapnel and flying plexiglass. He was hit in the neck, arms and hands, and suffered a fracture of the kneecap and a head wound.

Rear Adm. Frederic S. Withington, commander of U.S. naval forces in Japan, said emphatically U.S. patrols would continue in the area.

"We are not going to admit that the sea of Japan is a Russian lake," he declared.

But the admiral said he did not plan to send fighter escorts for the patrol planes, explaining "that would be more provocative than useful."

Withington said it was the first time a Navy aircraft had been so badly damaged and still returned to base. In 11 previous brushes between Communist and American planes in the Far East, some Air Force crews have made it home, but previous Navy planes have been lost.

The admiral interrupted the news conference to read a telegram from Washington awarding the Distinguished Flying Cross to the plane's 35-year-old commander, Lt. Cmdr. Donald R. Mayer of Litchfield, Conn., for his feat in bringing his aircraft and crew back.

DeValera Appears Certain To Win In Irish Election

By STERLING SLAPPEY

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — The Irish voted for a new president today, and nearly blind old Eamon de Valera appeared a shoo-in choice for the ceremonial job by a majority of at least 200,000.

Retiring from active politics, the 77-year-old statesman ran against Gen. Sean Maccoin, like De Valera a veteran of the fight for independence from Britain.

Only about three fourths of Ireland's 1,700,000 voters were expected to turn out to choose between the candidates and also decide whether Ireland should keep the election system of proportional representation. Counting of votes will not begin until Thursday.

Maccoin, 67, ran for president five years ago against Sean T. O'Kelly, who by law cannot run again after serving two five-year terms. Maccoin got 335,000 votes to O'Kelly's 537,000. A third candidate got 212,000.

Civil Defense Directors Well Pleased With 'Emergency' Test

A water curtain is formed across Conewango Creek as Warren County volunteer firemen stage a highly successful Civil Defense mutual aid run drill near Beatty school Tuesday night. The drill was called as a surprise to the fire companies who were clocked on time consumed in answering the call and setting up equipment. Directors said the drill was the largest ever held in Warren county. See other photos on Page 18 — Timesphoto Boyd Shattuck.

G.I. Shot While Fleeing Suspect In Murder Probe

ABERDEEN, Md. (AP) — A youthful soldier shot while fleeing state troopers who wanted to question him about a slaying was held under guard at Army Aberdeen Proving Ground Hospital today.

Authorities said they found the wallet of the slain man — a Baltimore furniture store executive — in the possession of Pvt. James E. Virkus.

Keys to the victim's car also were in a pocket of the 18-year-old soldier who was awaiting a bad-conduct discharge. Detectives found three knives and a dagger in the trunk of the car which belonged to the slain man, Philip D. Friedman, 48, formerly of Tarentum, Pa.

Virkus was held under arrest but no charges were placed against him immediately. Police planned to bring him to Baltimore later today.

An insurance man who heard a radio description and noticed the missing auto of Friedman's was credited with tipping off authorities. Aberdeen city police notified state police, who located the car parked in a driveway.

QUICKIES

By Ken Reynolds

"When I bought this store with a Times-Mirror Want Ad I weighed 110—and look how I've expanded!"

Directors of the Civil Defense mutual aid drill held Tuesday evening and CD officials praised Warren County volunteer fire departments today for their efficiency and preparedness in answering a call for mutual aid and setting equipment up under unfamiliar conditions and spur-of-the-moment decisions to combat the emergency.

The mock drill was held on the parking lot behind Beatty Junior High School where the participating units pumped water from Conewango Creek. Using the facilities there, proved that Conewango Creek can be used, to some extent as an emergency water supply to Warren Borough which before seemed inaccessible.

Chief Scott Stuart of Sugar Grove and Leonard Falbriski, chief of Clarendon, planned the drill. They were assisted by Chief James Tridico of the Warren Fire Dept.

Chief Tridico said today that the run was "very good" as was the time in arriving on the scene and preparing to pump water.

An estimated $250,000 worth of equipment was used in the drill which was planned as a surprise to firemen. Date, time and place was not known until the call was received by radio at each department headquarters.

Calls for mutual aid were dispatched from the Civil Defense headquarters through the County selective call board at Warren Borough Fire Department headquarters on Third avenue. Within 53 minutes from the first call, all 14 units were at the scene and pumping water.

First department notified arrived on the scene within 5 minutes. Eight arrived in less than 30 minutes. One company was pumping water two minutes after it arrived.

Russell department was called to Park Keystone service station in Russell shortly after arriving home from the drill. An explosion in the grease room from an overheated heater blew out several windows and caused considerable damage to stock, equipment and the building. Firemen used a chemical-water combination to douse the threatening blaze. No one was injured.

The trucks did not speed to the drill, but stayed within speed limits and obeyed all traffic rules. Sirens and red lights were not used to avoid confusion and unnecessary hurrying on busy streets and highways.

Borough Police Dept. aided the trucks through Warren to Beatty with the use of the emergency light system. As a truck neared the first traffic light, a radio operator called police and asked for "the lights". Motorists were requested to observe the flashing lights and allow

Nixon Is Permitted To Tour Siberian Cities

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet government has agreed to allow Vice President Richard M. Nixon to tour some Siberian cities during his good will visit to the Soviet Union next month.

Such a trip would make Nixon the highest-ranking U.S. official ever to visit this highly restricted region in peacetime. Vice President Henry A. Wallace toured Siberia briefly during World War II.

IKE DECLARES PROSPECTS FOR SUMMIT CONFERENCE ARE NOT ANY BRIGHTER

By BARVIN ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today the Geneva foreign ministers talks seem to have reached an impasse, and prospects for a summit conference are no brighter.

The President told a news conference, however, that he still would be willing to go to a heads-of-government meeting if any kind of reasonable progress can be made at Geneva.

And, Eisenhower said in response to a question, that he doesn't necessarily mean there must be progress specifically on the Berlin situation.

He said he has in mind any kind of reasonable progress on East-West problems generally.

The President was asked whether he believes that prospects for a summit conference have grown dimmer in the last couple of weeks.

He replied that prospects certainly have not brightened. He said the Geneva talks seem to have reached an impasse—or at least an unreadiness for fruitful discussion.

A bit later the President was asked whether his idea of progress at Geneva is that there must be some advance toward resolving differences over Berlin.

Eisenhower said he never had meant to tie prospects for a summit conference to the Berlin situation exclusively.

He added that if the foreign ministers talks can make such progress as to result in a profitable summit conference, he would be glad to attend a heads-of-government session.

The news conference drew 228 reporters for Eisenhower's discussion of the Geneva talks and these other matters:

STEEL — Eisenhower rejected the idea of calling steel management and union representatives to a White House conference in a move to smash the deadlock in contract talks.

That course has been advocated by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo).

The President said that for the government to get into that picture—for it to apply political or other kinds of pressure—would do more to hurt the situation than help it.

Eisenhower said once again that both management and the steel workers union must recognize the great danger of touching off any new inflationary spiral.

Liberace Is Awarded Damages in Libel Suit

LONDON (AP) — A high court jury awarded American entertainer Liberace 8,000 pounds ($22,400) damages today in a libel suit against the London Daily Mirror.

The jurors—10 men and 2 women—decided after 3½ hours of deliberation that a story in 1956 by Mirror columnist William N. Connor implied that the pianist was a homosexual.

The implication was untrue, the jury held, and the phraseology used by Connor in the column was not fair comment, as claimed by the Mirror.

Liberace insisted the column said plainly that he was something less than a man.

He swore on the witness stand that he was not a homosexual.

Superman Suicide Remains Mystery in Movie Circles

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — George Reeves was Superman to millions of television fans—but not to himself.

The husky 45-year-old actor committed suicide Tuesday moments after his fiancée predicted in jest: "He's going to shoot himself."

Reeves, a jut-jawed natural for the role of Superman, was selected to portray the cape-flying marvel nine years ago.

Television filming of the Superman series stopped a year and a half ago with 105 episodes completed.

Coyle Boys Are Captured By Troopers

MIDDLETOWN, Mass. (AP) — The Coyle brothers, object of Massachusetts' biggest manhunt, were captured today in woods about half a mile from where they held up a liquor store Monday.

Shortly afterward at St. Luke's Hospital, William Coyle, 22, died of police bullets. His brother John, 24, was not wounded.

The brothers had fled Philadelphia after allegedly killing a policeman. They kidnapped a hostage, William Sedgwick, 49, and drove to Massachusetts in his car.

Sedgwick escaped when the gunmen fled into the woods as they were surprised by police after the liquor store job.

A posse of up to 400 men — state troopers, conservation officers, FBI agents and area police — had beaten through the woods since Monday morning.

Shortly before 9 a.m. today, police received a call from Walter Schmidt, of Union City, (Turn to Page Eighteen)

Kidnap Charge Is Placed Against Illinois Gunman

PARIS, Ill. (AP) — A gunman who was besieged for 16 hours by police was held in the Edgar County jail today in default of $7,000 bond after his arraignment before a police magistrate on a kidnap charge.

Magistrate Grover Hoff set preliminary hearing Friday for the gunman, Kenneth Eugene Adkins, 22.

The kidnap charge stemmed from Adkins' forcing his half-sister, Nyra Jean Kennedy, 34, to accompany him Monday night from Paris to the home of his mother in Charleston. He held Mrs. Kennedy, mother of five children, prisoner throughout the night.

More than 30 state, county and city policemen besieged the frame house after Adkins had demanded that a Charleston police captain, Logan Cox, be brought to the house so he could kill him. Cox said he had arrested Adkins a number of times for assault and disorderly conduct.

Reeves felt doomed to play Superman. He once explained why he couldn't get other roles: "It's like Hopalong Cassidy trying to get an acting job in white tie and tails."

Why did he shoot himself? Lenore Lemmon, his fiancée said: "Because he was known as Superman. He couldn't get a job."

"That combined with the fact that a woman (a former girl friend) never got off his back."

"I think everything just kind of swooped down on a very sensitive man."

Program Announced for Independence Day Weekend

Parade, Queen Choice, Drum Corps Competition, Open-Air Dance, Fireworks and Prizes

A complete schedule of events for the Jaycees' eleventh annual Fourth of July Celebration was released today by Gordon Drum, General Chairman of the Committee planning the extravaganza.

Highlighted by the traditional but streamlined two hour parade and the breathtaking fireworks display the program will include the selection of Miss Warren County for 1959, a festive, open-air street dance; the Warren County Firemen's Water Battle and a colorful standstill Drum & Bugle Corps Competition which is being staged by the American Legion's Cornplanters in conjunction with the Jaycees.

The holiday weekend will get underway on Friday evening, July 3 in front of Beaty School when Miss Warren County for 1959 and the Queen for the celebration will be selected by a panel of judges composed of Jaycee presidents from nearby communities. A coronation ball in the form of a street dance will follow the selection of the Queen for which Ford Winner and his orchestra will provide music for dancing. This open-air dance will be staged in the parking lot of Beaty School.

Girls whose names have been submitted in the contest are: Roxann Johnson, Minna Bostin, Joyce Gruber, Judith Ristau, Louise Zavinski, Joyce Leonard, Kay White, Selma Hunsington, Mary Kondak, Cindy Dick, Brenda Munson, Carol Brooks, Sue Burch, Yvonne Seymour, Carol Anderson, Margaret Erickson, Rhonda Anderson and Anella Lockitell.

The committee stresses that those whose names do not appear on the list, could not be reached, and Bob Eames and Hugh Siggins, of the queen committee, can be called at Randolph 3-6864, or RA 3-4181 to verify entry in the contest.

In case of rain, judging will be held in Beaty Junior High auditorium, and the winning five will reign over the Fourth of July festivities. The Big day will include riding in state on a beautiful float which this year will be furnished by Culligan Soft Water Company.

The explosion of the cannon at 8:00 a. m. Saturday morning, July 4 will summon Jaycees to the Celebration Committee breakfast which will be held at the Blue and White restaurant beginning at 7:00 a. m. Final parade route preparations will be made during the morning and the parade itself will get underway promptly at 11:00 a. m. Parade Chairman and Jaycee Vice-President John Evans have indicated that the list of parade entries this year insures the most colorful parade within memory. In addition, he said that the committee is working on several innovations and surprises for the annual spectacle. Ten Drum Corps and numerous floats and marching units have already been signed up with entries coming in every day, he said.

For the first time in four years, the 1959 Celebration will feature a standstill Drum and Bugle Corps competition which is being staged by the Cornplanters Drum Corps in cooperation with the Jaycees. This popular and colorful event will be staged at War Memorial Field at 2:30 in the afternoon and tickets are on sale in many business establishments.

Following the Drum Corps exhibition, the Warren County championship Water Battle will take place on Beaty Field beginning at 6:00 p. m. Jaycee chairman Ron Carlson indicates that participation of the County's volunteer fire departments promises to reach a new high this year with ten companies already registered for the event. The Water Battle will commence at 6:00 p. m. and will be followed by a series of stunts which is the firemen's word for free for all with all companies participating. The Jaycees will award a trophy to the winning volunteer fire department emblematic of the Warren County Water Battle championship.

The celebration will conclude with a better than ever fireworks display. Dan Goldthwaite, Jaycee in charge of this phase of the program announce-

From 9:00 to 11:00 a. m. Friday, at stated times, each department will visit other departments, and, at 11:00, all parents and interested adults are invited to view the accomplishments of the past two weeks. Offering baskets will be found in each department so that contributions may be made by visitors, if they so desire, to help defray expenses of the school.

The offering taken each day in each department went to the projects of the department's own choosing, as a result of their study and interest. Kindergarten will send baby chicks to Ecuador; Primary I, Bibles to Navajo Indian children; Primary II, a book to the library at Scott Run Settlement; Juniors, school supplies to Navajo children; Intermediates, powdered milk to the Share Our Surplus Program in connection with Church World Service.

In connection with Primary II work, the accompanying picture shows the six youngsters who have been here for two weeks from Scott Run Settlement, a national mission project of the Methodist WSCS. Farmers Prepare To Start Barley Harvest

HARRISBURG (AP) — Weather permitting, Pennsylvania farmers will begin harvesting ripening barley this week, the State Crop Reporting Service said Tuesday.

Farmers took advantage of the wet weather last week to prepare combines for the harvest.

In spite of last week's weather, total rainfall so far this season remains below normal for many sections of the state and high winds have quickly dried topsoil, the Agriculture Department agency reported.

Introducing Summer Y-Camp Personalities

Hal Miller, physical education director and wrestling coach at Warren High School, has consented to serve as program director for the YMCA Summer Camp, starting July 19. A native of Washington, Pa., Hal came to Warren in 1956, where he presently resides at 18 N. Irvine street with his wife and three small children.

Mr. Miller received his formal education at the University of Pittsburgh where he earned not only a B. S. degree, but an M. E. D. in physical education and recreation, as well, and enrolled in a special three-weeks camping course offered at the University, which has proved an invaluable tool in his career since. Hal exercised this training working extensively with Boy Scout camps in Allegheny county, and at a day camp for the underprivileged in his home town.

Turning now to his first experience at a Y Camp, Hal is pleased to announce a new trend in YMCA camping, which is in keeping with President Eisenhower's Youth Movement stressing Physical Fitness of today's Youth. "We measure the strength of our nation by the strength of our youth".

The program outlined briefly will be strictly a "Back to the Woods" movement in camping offering an experience in Pioneer living. For instance, how does one survive in the woods? Mr. Miller will show how to build a shelter, how to make fire, track animals, set trails for stalking game, and will include nature study with this training. Here the boys will learn how to wade in a creek, will hike, learn how to correctly read a compass, read maps, make maps, study trees, stars, clouds, leaves, bugs, and the art of butterfly catching. Fascinating? Indeed, today's young camper has a treat in store.

Along with this, the boys will enjoy archery, riflery, swimming, to say nothing of boxing, pillow fighting, scavenger hunts, a Hot Rod derby, model sail boating and raft racing, relays, a skit night, and one day devoted to Indian culture complete with tribal warfare, water battles, tomahawk hunt, trailing buried treasure, counsel fire with song and dance, and prizes will be awarded boys taking greatest safety measures and skills.

For example, boys will be awarded prizes for making the best stews, for putting out their fires, and for the cleanest areas after the meal. Prizes will also be awarded for the best fire building, and water boiling. Sounds like an experience most housewives would welcome, especially the new brides.

Mr. Miller emphasizes that parents can feel completely at ease about the boys safety at camp, for this is of utmost importance that all rules of safety be foremost in the boys training, and that his experience at camp be not only fun-packed, but beneficial in that many of the basic things learned during this week at camp, can be applied to later life.

The boys will learn skills in arts and crafts, will actually make a Tom Tom, plaster molds, and perhaps mount leaves and butterfly collections. This new trend with accent on outdoor philosophy is fast gaining in popularity with campers, a trend known to many some 30 or 40 years ago, which again is highly endorsed by the American Association of Physical Education Directors.

With Mr. Miller's reputation for his entertaining and skillful gym shows in the past, he will masterfully set up and organize a program never to be forgotten by Camp Cornplanter boys beginning July 19 through July 26 inclusive. A program of full scale outdoor living supported by nature study, survival in the woods, arts and crafts, Indian lore, and an all around good time. Hal says "You just can't beat it".

SKY CLEAR, BAROMETER RISING

The news that unemployment has dropped below 3,400,000 is very good, but it isn't actually the best news on business, even from the human viewpoint.

The most cheering word is the sharp upward spurt in spending for new machinery and new factories. If this revival keeps on at the rising pace currently seen, the predictions are for a genuine boom in 1960. And that inevitably will translate into more jobs, even after allowance is made for automation's inroads in many industries.

The shattering decline in equipment and new plant spending in 1958 is generally regarded as the chief cause of the recent recession. Most economists have flatly said there would be no new boom until these outlays shot forward again.

Now that prospect seems likely. Government surveys first indicated about a 4 per cent pickup in capital expenditures this year. A later review by McGraw-Hill, business publishing firm, revised the estimate to 7 per cent. Now even newer surveys suggest a still steeper gain.

Should the climb continue into and through 1960, the general economy cannot help but benefit markedly, and job level likewise.

This outlook can be heartening for many reasons. First and most direct in effect, unemployment may be reduced to a minimum. Second, and in many ways most vital, we need the economic growth to support our rising population and to underpin the public services the citizens require.

Third, also immensely important, we are in a long-range economic race with the Soviet Union. Of late we have not been growing at the rate many experts think us capable of. If we do not do better, Premier Khrushchev may come uncomfortably close to realizing his boast of overtaking us economically in half a generation. We ought to fulfill our potential for expansion.

For all these reasons we can be most thankful that the economic signs ahead are now the brightest they have been since the recession plunged us downward in late 1957.

According to an article appearing elsewhere in this issue the Jaycees are completing plans for a genuine old-fashioned Fourth of July Celebration—better plan to stick around for the long and exciting weekend, right here at home!

Here and There

A detailed review of the fast-growing recreation use on the Allegheny National Forest of the U. S. Forest Service is submitted by Forest Supervisor John E. Franson, at Forest Service headquarters. The Allegheny National Forest, as a part of a nation-wide review of recreation use, is presently engaged in plans to begin on-the-ground studies by July 1. The purpose of the study, called the National Forest Recreation Resource Review, is to obtain a clear picture of recreation resources and opportunities on these public lands. Facts thus gained will be used as the basis of programs to meet the ever-increasing demand by the public for recreation facilities. The review, according to Mr. Franson, is expected to supply information needed by the National Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission, which was established by law in 1958. "More and more people located in the densely populated eastern part of the nation are turning to national forest areas for recreation," said Forest Supervisor

Franson. "During the past five years," he continued, "the number of recreational visits to the National Forests in the Eastern Region has doubled. In 1954 there was a total of 3 million visits; in 1958 there was a total of 6 million visits. Every indication points toward a continuation of this rising public demand for outdoor recreation facilities, with the National Forests receiving a large share of the increase. It is certain to take the combined resources of Federal, State and private lands to meet the expected recreation demands of the future." Nationwide, this study by the Forest Service will include an inventory and evaluation of recreation resources and potentialities on the 181 million acres of national forest land. Under multiple-use management, recreation is integrated with the other resources—timber, water, wildlife, and grazing—to best serve the public interest and preference. The review will assure that full consideration is given to recreation needs in the stepped-up management of national forests for the future. Project leaders will work out of 10 Regional Offices, with the Ranger District as the basic unit to be examined. Final data will be compiled for Regions and States. The first phase will involve mapping existing information with the aid of aerial photographs, finding out what lands are suitable for various recreational uses, and pinpointing areas needing more study. William H. Arnold has been assigned to the Allegheny National Forest to head up the recreation inventory of its lands. Field crews will then go in and make an inventory of these areas. They will find out the acreage, how accessible it is to the public, what natural attractions—water, unusual scenery, mountains—are nearby, and overall quality of the area from the standpoint of public recreation. All kinds of outdoor recreation will be considered, including camping, hunting and fishing, picnicking, mountain climbing, boating and swimming, skiing, hiking, horseback riding, and the enjoyment of wilderness and wild areas. Field work is scheduled to be completed in the fall of 1960. Data from the field, along with other information, will be used to develop a final report will be issued in the spring of 1961. From these studies will come firm plans to best use the available land and water resources of the national forests to meet outdoor recreation needs of a much larger population in 1976 and 2000.

Congress Passes 37 Out of 10,600 Measures; Not Bad

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—One principal reason why the 86th Congress hasn't piled up a better record so far this year may be that there is a complete lack of political discipline in both parties. Leaders are unable to control their members. What Congress has now is 534 rugged individualists. Many of them are inclined to be political prima donna types. On paper the Democrats have a 64-34 majority in the Senate and a 281-152 majority in the House, with three vacancies. This gives the Democrats the biggest majorities they have had in Congress in the last 20 years. But they are still not big enough to enable the Democrats to override any or all votes President Eisenhower may cast on legislation which the Democratic majorities might be able to agree on. Eisenhower administration leaders have dropped hints of half a dozen more vetoes in sight. They are predicted if the Democrats try to force through bills that call for spending more than Republican recommendations on housing, aid to depressed areas, airport and highway construction, stream pollution prevention, new water resources developments and other public works projects.

IT'S A SOCK on the jaw to the Democrats every time they fail to override a veto. They've failed on one already—trying to take Rural Electrification Administration out of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson's hands. They're skittish about risking a showdown on other vetoes.

The result is a kind of legislative stalemate, with little attempted and less done. Senate committees have reported out 734 measures for floor action this year. House committees have reported out 386. All this out of over 10,600 measures introduced. But only 37 bills have cleared both houses and been signed into law.

The stalemate centers around the fact that the Democrats are instinctively opposed to anything the Eisenhower administration proposes. And the Republicans seem determined to keep the Democrats from putting through a counterprogram of their own. The situation is further complicated by the fact that neither party can deliver its votes in a solid bloc. For there is no punishment that party leaders can hand out to their colleagues who stray.

The Republicans have a tighter organization than the Democrats. It is smaller, therefore easier to control. But GOP liberals frequently stray away from the leadership of Sen. Everett Dirksen and Rep. Charlie Halleck.

Beyond the Democrats' broad policy of opposing almost everything suggested by President Eisenhower, they are split down the middle on their own program. Conservative Democrats vote with Republicans against Democratic liberals just enough to prevent anything being done by either side.

CAUGHT IN THE MIDDLE of this Democratic squeeze are its leaders, Speaker Sam Rayburn and Sen. Lyndon Johnson.

When they try to exercise their leadership, they are called despots. But when they let the Democratic members of Senate and House exercise their individuality, the leaders are accused of having no program and no policy.

Some Republican congressmen have a theory—which they can't prove—that this undisciplined Democratic lack of action is a deliberate stall to delay consideration of civil rights legislation. By taking up so much time on the nomination of Admiral Lewis Strauss as Secretary of Commerce and by threatening filibusters to prevent his confirmation, Senate Democrats are preventing action on more important measures. In the House, the slowdowns in committees on labor, educational and other bills are having the same effect.

Matter of FACT

Because of its far northern location darkness is unknown in Lapland during the summer months. From May 22 to July 22 the sun can always be seen, moving strangely along the horizon at midnight before starting a new day. The region called Lapland stretches from the coast of Norway on the west to the White Sea on the east. It includes the northernmost parts of Norway, Sweden, Finland and the Kola Peninsula of the U.S.S.R.

HANDICAPPED WORKERS

There is a place on Long Island where disabled persons may apply for a job if they really want work. The only qualifications are the ability to work an eight hour day and managing their own transportation to and from work. Abilities, Inc., is a competitive enterprise started in 1952 by Henry Viscardi, Jr. He himself is handicapped and has received many citations for his work in inspiring the physically handicapped. The factory is not a rehabilitation center or a place for treatment. The workers are not pitied, coddled, or given special privileges such as long rest periods or low production standards.

The firm has grown remarkably. Starting from scratch it is now a 1 million dollar business. There are hundreds of employees disabled by a variety of diseases including polio, heart trouble, cerebral palsy, blindness, deafness, epilepsy, multiple sclerosis, or paraplegia. Some are "too old to work." That the company gives no pre-employment physical examination usually surprises other business men. Everyone is taken at his word as to what he can or cannot do.

Motivation and interest are more important than past employment experience. Emphasis is placed on what the person can do, not on his disability. On the other hand, every worker gets a physical examination and several psychological tests as part of a research project that may shed considerable light on hiring the handicapped. This organization is not unique. The Goodwill Industries, for example, hire the handicapped in a variety of operations.

In Abilities, Inc., some of the employees are utilizing their know-how learned on previous jobs but many are working on assignments unrelated to previous occupations. The company makes and assembles a variety of electronic parts and does specialized packing of such items as aircraft and electronic parts. A small percentage of the employees are widows and housewives who never worked before. Most of these persons are able to learn their jobs in a short period of time. Motivation is a wonderful stimulus, confirming the adage, where there's a will there's a way.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics by letter if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request. TOMORROW: Don't let ticks bore you.

MIGRAINE AND EPILEPSY

This is a moot question. It is difficult to determine whether there is a relationship between the two conditions because migraine is so common. Some migraine sufferers develop epilepsy as also do some of their offspring.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Those women you see in stockbrokers' boardrooms in increasing numbers these days aren't just resting their feet. They're buying stocks in ever greater volume. In the list of Americans who have bought their first share of stock in the last three years, housewives lead all the rest. Women shareholders have outnumbered men for some time. But they have increased their lead since 1936.

Some four million women classifying themselves as housewives now own stock, the biggest single group in the New York Stock Exchange's 1959 census of shareholders.

This shows that women now are 52.5 per cent of all adult shareholders, compared with 51.4 per cent in 1956 when the last census was taken. Altogether there are 12,490,000 men and women who have at least one share.

And among the new comers to corporate stockholder lists since 1956 women outnumber men by 56.3 per cent to 43.7 per cent. Altogether there are 6,347,000 women shareholders in the land, the stock exchange estimates in its survey, or about 11.5 per cent of the nation's adult female population. Three years ago 4,260,000 women held stock, or 8.1 per cent of their total number.

Of all women shareholders 1,275,000 are housewives who have jobs outside the home. The increase in working housewives could be one reason that women are more and more involved in the stock market. Women have more money nowadays to spend—and to invest.

Another could be that women live intimately with inflation. As handlers of the family spending money they know what had happened to their bills and to the purchasing power of their dollar. Many may look on stocks as a good hedge against this.

Capital gains through rising stock prices appeal to them, too, as compared to fixed interest returns on other investments.

Brokers add that their women customers are active bargain seekers — although finding bargains in stocks has become harder to do in a soaring bull market.

While the career girls and the other women employed in business are taking to the stock market too, it's the housewife who is the shining light in the boardrooms these days. They now total one third of all the shareholders in the land. Their numbers have increased by 1,170,000 since 1956. Next largest groups of shareholders are: proprietors, managers, and officials; professional and semiprofessional; and clerical and sales. There are many women among each of these three occupational groups.

Local Participants In WWS Convention

Several local and area persons were among participants in the 80th annual session of Erie Conference Branch WWS, held at EUB Camp Findley at Findley Lake, N. Y., last week.

"Our Unity in Christ" was the program theme which introduced plans for the new year's work. Mrs. C. C. Vandersall of Mansfield, O., who represents the denomination on the Women's Council as chairman of the committee on missionary education, interpreted the new comprehensive plan for women's work in local churches.

She also conducted installation of officers elected by the convention. These included the president, Mrs. Harold V. Lindquist of Erie Glenwood church, formerly of Youngsville; first vice president, Mrs. Arva D. McGill, Weiss Library church; second vice president, Mrs. Wilford Meleen, Youngsville; third vice president, Mrs. Charles McIntyre, North East.

Among secretaries elected and installed were Mrs. Wayne Ostrander, Cable Hollow, for missionary education for youth; and Mrs. John Mallory, Jr., of Warren Bethel church, missionary education for children.

Africa, focal point in interdenominational missionary study this year, was represented in the program by Phyllis Ludwig, missionary teacher in a more primitive area of Nigeria, British West Africa, a country soon to achieve independence.

A new missionary residence in Lankaviri, Nigeria, was financial objective of the Mrs. J. Hal Smith Offering, and a letter from Africa reported the Erie Conference missionaries, the Rev. Eugene Westley family, has moved into the new, modern house.

Mrs. Leroy Lundgren, Clarendon, was convention song leader; participating in a panel discussion, "What's Happening to Johnny?", were Rev. Gene Sackett, pastor of Warren Bethel church and Conference youth director; Mrs. Mallory, and Mrs. Ostrander; Joyce Andregg, also of Bethel church, directed a workshop in Christian social relations.

Legion Auxiliary At Ludlow Has Speaker

LUDLOW—In an open meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Laura Johnson, superintendent of Kane Community Hospital, was guest speaker and, during the business session conducted by Mrs. Leland Engman, the following officers were elected:

Mrs. Ward Anderson, president; Mrs. Andrew Okruh, vice president; Mrs. Eriand Olson, second vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Larson, secretary; Mrs. William Ralston, treasurer; Mrs. Andrew Mischel, chaplain; Mrs. Lawrence Olson, historian; Mrs. Eric Peterson, sergeant at arms.

Mrs. Johnson, active in statewide nursing circles and much concerned with Civil Defense, gave a graphic description of the vital need for preparation at all levels. She urged women of the community to do all they can toward this effort, stating one of the very first things each woman may do is see that she has adequate food stored in proper containers for at least three days and much longer, if practical and possible.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gay, 7 Cottage Place, was granted a two-year secretarial certificate during the annual commencement exercises at Grove City College last Saturday, and was among 24 young women who successfully completed the two-year course of study this semester.

Miss Hughes, a 1957 graduate of Warren High School, has been a member of the Sigma Theta Chi Sorority at Grove City. Just prior to completion of the spring term she was judged the fastest typist in the annual contest conducted by the Secretarial Studies Department of the college. As such, she will have her name engraved on a plaque which will remain on display at the college.

She stressed the need of knowledge for care of evacuees of cities and care of emotional needs of these people. She listed many things desirable for preparation, including a special place in which to stay for some time with one's family, and distributed comprehensive pamphlets concerning Civil Defense.

Mrs. Johnson has spoken in many places concerning this subject. Her talk was much appreciated and created a real discussion, the outcome being appointment of a committee to make contacts with Civil Defense personnel and to complete a study, during the summer, of urgent needs, with Mrs. Lawrence Larson and Mrs. Ben Connelly, co-chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Melvin McCleary, principal of Hamilton township schools and Mrs. Leland Engman, president of American Legion Auxiliary.

Coffee was served at a beautifully appointed table, centered with a large arrangement of peonies and lupines, by Mrs. Bernal Connelly, Mrs. William Hanson and Mrs. Clyde Gilfert. Members were urged to attend the next Inter-County Council meeting.

She wears (left) a sleeveless dress and jacket in a fine, flat knit orlon. This is the perfect ensemble for summer plane or train travel. Sleeveless jacket dress is in white crepe (center) woven of acetate and nylon. The pleats will keep their sharp, neat look indefinitely. Jacket is blue, bordered in red and accented with gold buttons. Flimsy chiffon dancing dress (right) looks fragile but is strong. It's woven of nylon and silk. It's cut with bouffant skirts and pleated, cascading sleeves. These clothes are hardy travelers, planned to pack well and emerge from a suitcase looking fresh and spruce.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Despite the prevalence of air conditioning, summer travel does present problems.

You can start out for an airport looking fresh and neat and arrive rumpled and wrinkled. Or, you can leave the air conditioned plane at your destination and arrive at your hotel looking completely wilted.

What's the answer? First, to pick fabrics that will stand up to summer heat rather than collapsing. An orlon knit is ideal for summer travel, particularly in a jacket dress. It won't muss, won't wrinkle but will keep you cool. Chiffon woven of nylon-and-silk is another sound investment. When you reach your destination and are ready to go partying, it will emerge from the suitcase without looking as if it had been pressed with a bedspring.

Another happy fabric combination is dacron-and-cotton. This one will hold up even if you get caught in a brief but drenching summer shower.

A second answer to looking neat in summer is to remember that even yet, not all air conditioning is regulated so that you can go without a w.i.s. Plan your travel wardrobe around jacket dresses, dresses with matching stoles, dress-and-sweater combinations. But be sure they are co-ordinated. Nothing looks messier than a summer dress, however pretty, covered by any kind of sweater which has been added just as protection from drafts.

The Mature Parent

Mother Can't Be Father As Well To Her Children

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

They sat at a table in the big expensive roadhouse on the outskirts of one of our most expensive exurbs. The father might have been a rising young TV or advertising executive. The mother, in her thickly simple red linen sheath, was slim as a high fashion model and wore the same look of bored disdain.

But when she turned that look on the exuberant little boy beside her who wanted more black olives, it had no effect at all. When she removed the relish dish, saying, "No, you've had enough," he reached over to his sister's plate and grabbed her olives.

In her cool, overcontrolled voice, his mother said, "Stuart, you heard what I said. Give the olives back to Melinda." He shoved them into his mouth.

I thought, "Oh, young mother, why don't you open that carefully lipsticked mouth of yours and cry to your husband: 'Bill, help me! Sit on Stuart! Subdue him! I'm so fashionably thin that my sitting on him makes no impression. Indeed, Bill, I only seem to be sophisticated, self-sufficient, certain of all the answers—and am really unable to father our children for you. Squash Stuart, dear Bill, and I'll never quote Doctors Spock or Gesell to you again, so help me!'"

She didn't say this, of course. So what happened was family surrender. The bright young executive father, at a nod of decision from his wife, untied the napkin from Stuart's neck. Slipping a bill to the bewildered waiter, he meekly followed wife and children to their parked car and home where Stuart, I can only presume, was served more olives.

I don't know how we women got stuck with this awful obligation to appear so independent, so self-assured, so superior to any need for husbandly strength and co-operation in the discipline of children.

How we got stuck with it doesn't matter if we could just register our resentment of it. We seem unable to. We just brood, smoke and drink too much, get headaches and divorces imagining we're mad at everything but the one thing that really grates us—the obligation to play father to our husbands' children.

So, fooled by our front of self-sufficiency, our men have got to feeling uncertain, insufficient. Joining us in parental surrender, they leap to our nod of decision—and follow us obediently out of the restaurant instead of staying there, helping to quell Stuart and enjoying a fine roast beef dinner.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY E. BROOKER, JR.

A double ring ceremony performed at 2:00 p. m. June 13 in the Church of the Nazarene united in marriage two young people of Warren RD 2, Joanne Judy Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Edwards, and Harry Edward Brooker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooker.

The Rev. William Adams officiated before an altar centered with a large basket of white glads, mums and carnations, and flanked by palms. Gladys Judd was at the organ and the bride's cousin, David M. Shaffer, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Gowned in floor length lace and tulle and carrying a white Bible, topped by sweetheart roses encircled with white carnations, the bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Dody Beichner, maid of honor; Sonia Kunselman and Anna Halle.

The basque bodice of the bridal gown was accented with a portrait neckline of chantilly lace and draped tulle, and long sleeves, tapered over the hands. The bouffant tulle skirt, worn over tiers of ruffled tulle, was encircled with a band of the same lace. Her fingertip veil of with rosebuds and white peonies. Aides were Emma Carlson, Mrs. Anna Keith, Mrs. Evelyn Sweet and Mrs. Patricia Shaffer.

Leaving for a tour of western Pennsylvania, the bride wore a white sheath dress with matching jacket, red accessories and a corsage of white carnations and red roses.

Returning, the newlyweds are at home to friends at 12 Canton street. Both are Warren High School graduates and Mr. Brooker is employed by Kar-nak Tree and Shrub Service.

Hostesses who have honored the bride-elect were Sonia Kunselman, Dody Beichner, Mrs. Robert Brooker and Mrs. Harry Brooker.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mrs. Nellie B. Campbell, formerly of Warren and more recently residing in Point Can-averal, Fla., is spending the summer months in town and living at the McCabe residence in Hickory street.

Miss Jean Ball, teacher at Brockport, N. Y., is home to spend the summer at 316 Hazel street.

Miss Janie Harrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Harrington, has completed her first year at The Rosemont School in Philadelphia, and is home briefly. She will leave next Monday to spend the summer as counselor at Camp Robin Hood, a private girls' camp near Chambersburg. Her sister, Miss Pat, will arrive Saturday from West Hartford, Conn., where she has a teaching post. She plans to return to east soon for summer school at New Brighton State Teachers' College, Conn.

Attendants wore contrasting colors of yellow, blue and pink, with matching floral headbands, and carried colonial bouquets of carnations which also matched their gowns.

Completing the bridal party, Robert Brooker served his brother as best man; another brother, William Brooker, and Robert Keith served as ushers.

Mrs. Edwards selected for her daughter's wedding a sheath of powder blue brocade, with matching jacket; Mrs. Brooker wore a jacket frock in the same shade, detailed with seed pearls. Each was presented a corsage of red roses, while the grandmothers were remembered with white carnation corsages.

A reception was held at the YWCA following the ceremony, the guest list of approximately 125 including out of town relatives and friends from Youngsville, Cranestown, Erie, Brockway, Russell, Sugar Grove, Girard and Sheffield.

LUDLOW—Enoch O Nelson left Sunday for Hartford, Conn., to attend the 100th synodical meeting of Augustana Lutheran Church as a New York Conference delegate.

Holy Communion was observed at Moriah church Sunday, with Pastor Carl Eliason preaching the sermon; the choir, singing an anthem, accompanied by Judy Johnson, and Carol Ralston serving as organist.

Nelson reported on the New York Conference Churchmen's meeting held recently at Kane.

Urged at the conference were sustaining memberships; support of youth and camp work, including Boy Scouting, scholarships and camperships. The need for funds for advanced education was discussed, as was the proposed merger of four Lutheran bodies. Speaker was Rev. Robert E. Olson, former Ludlow man and now pastor of St. John's church in Johnsonburg.

Moriah Luther League entertained Kane Tabor Leaguers for a wiener roast at The Pines Sunday night, with devotions by Everett Larson and a program directed by Judy Johnson and Carol Ralston. Fourteen were present from Kane, accompanied by Pastor Mallard Nelson. Ludlow counselors are Gustav Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Engman; picnic arrangements

PLAY SUPPORTS THIN-ICE BID

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Mark Hodges' three heart bid comes as close to skating on thin ice as a bid can come—particularly as Mark knew that his partner was addicted to light opening bids.

However, Mark has been skating on thin ice for 20 years and this time the ice did not break and Mark made his contract.

with an overtrick.

The play is a good example of correct technique. Mark won the opening spade lead, ruffed a spade and led a low club from dummy. East ducked and Mark was in with the king to ruff his last spade.

Now Mark played the queen of clubs. East won with the ace and shifted to a diamond which was won by dummy's ace. Mark cashed dummy's ace of trumps and discarded two diamonds on dummy's jack and nine of clubs. Either opponent could ruff but that ruff and one more trump trick were all they could get.

"I should not have made the overtrick," complained Mark. "Now I will be known as an underbidder."

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
PARIS (AP) — Leaves from a ouing notebook:
Those who have been weeping or La Belle France can dry their ears and throw away the crying owl.
She is again the belle of Europe.
Those who remember a France rostrate from World War II could hardly recognize her now.
The air of suspicion has disappeared. A fresh air of self-confidence is evident everywhere. The sound of the builder's hammer echoes from one end of the country to the other. Industry is rapidly being modernized. Tall apartment dwellings are rising to house the new generation of a more hopeful France.
"The standard of living here has been rising faster for the last six years than it has in America," said a veteran U.S. business leader.
"The French standard of living is now higher than that of Britain or West Germany," said a spokesman for the U.S. Embassy. "It is the highest in Europe."
Most observers seem to feel that a developing financial stability under the leadership of President Charles de Gaulle has accelerated France's economic betterment. This view also seems shared by most Frenchmen even by those who disagree with De Gaulle politically.
If there is any strong anti-Americanism among the French today, it isn't visible to the average U.S. tourist.

Jamestown Red Cross Chapter Helps Save Twins

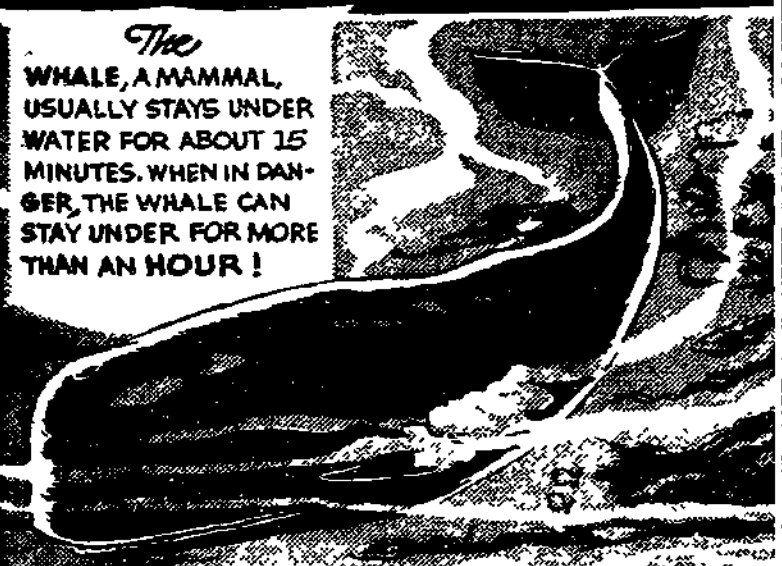

Jamestown Post-Journal: Two tiny baby girls left W.C.A. Hospital this weekend with prospects of leading a normal life, even though death appeared imminent when they were born May 25.
The girls, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stanton, RD 1 Frewsburg, were born with blood which would not have allowed them to live more than six hours after birth.
Due to quick action of the Southern Chautauqua County Chapter, American Red Cross, however, special volunteer blood donors were at the hospital only 30 minutes after the girls were born.
Dr. Maurice B. Furlong, praised the Red Cross' quick action and the cooperation of the donors in responding so speedily.
The two girls, Laura Leslie and Louise Lynette, have had two complete blood transfusions during their short lives. The first was given while their chances of survival were small, while the other was administered on Memorial Day, five days later.
Both of the twins were born with Rh positive blood factors. However, because their mother was of the Rh negative factor, antibodies had been built up in the girls' blood that would have killed the cells.
While only one in 150 babies is born with that blood trouble, it is even more unusual for a set of twins to have the rarity.
What makes matters more difficult is the fact that complete transfer of blood is needed in such a short time. The blood transfer, moreover, must use freshly donated blood to replace blood already in the child. No bottled, or stored blood can be used.

age U.S. tourist. His welcome may not be effusive—the French rarely throw their hats in the air at the sight of strangers—but it will be cordial and polite.
"Recent polls show Germans now are the most popular foreign visitors among the French," said U.S. Minister Cecil Lyon. "Americans are second, British third, Italians fourth. Russians are the least popular."
Why should the French so willingly extend the glad hand to the Germans less than 15 years after the close of the last great war? Lyon feels it is a result of two things. Closer economic ties, and De Gaulle's open admiration for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of Germany.
The tourist gets about 17 per cent more for his money now than he did before the devaluation of the franc. But France is still no Mecca for the retired man seeking a place to live cheaply.
"The necessities of life here are still relatively high," said one resident. "A meal that costs a dollar in Washington or New York would cost $2 to $3 in Paris."
"But luxury is relatively cheap. An evening in a Parisian night club costs about a fourth as much as an evening in a Manhattan night spot."

Radio and TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — "I think here's a lot of snobishness about daytime television — outside and inside the business," says actor John Larkin. "But if you want to see real pros working, just take a look at the soap operas."

For almost four years Larkin has been playing the role of strong, brave, good, handsome Mike Karr, male lead in CBS' daytime serial "Edge of Night." Before that he was the radio voice of Perry Mason and had leads in such popular network radio fare as "Girl Alone" and "High Adventure."

"We do a half-hour dramatic show five days a week with a minimum of rehearsal," Larkin emphasizes. "That we can turn them out at this rate is simply the result of craftsmanship and professionalism."

He adds with a touch of bitterness that, although many of the regulars acting in daytime serials are names well-known and well-regarded on Broadway, TV's soap operas are rarely tapped for evening-show casts.

"It makes me laugh every time I hear that a producer is looking everywhere for talent," says Larkin. "One place producers never look is the daytime serial. And some of these people — who never look — are the very ones who suggest that the daytime serials are good places to train young actors."

"That's nonsense. We do a 30-minute show with a maximum of six hours rehearsal — and if it were a night-time show of the same length there would be 16 hours of rehearsing time. That takes experience. I will admit that there are a lot of clichés in daytime serials, and I will admit that a lot of pap comes out of it."

"But I also watch considerable night-time television, and I say that a lot of pap comes out on that. And I also say that with the same amount of money and rehearsal time, we — the technical and acting crews — could do a better job. And, what's more, I often see stuff on important evening shows — bad camera work, bad acting — which wouldn't be permitted on our shows."

APACHE TRAIL, Ariz. (AP)—A pagoda perched on an Arizona Peak. Two hundred Chinese trudging up the steep face of a canyon. A Chinese village set in a cactus-filled arroyo.

Those are the incongruous scenes here in the Tonto National Forest. A sizable hunk of China has been created amid the crags and canyons of Arizona for "The Mountain Road," latest of the Hollywood films to seek fresh and authentic-looking backdrops.

As you can imagine, this is no small operation. Columbia Pictures says it is spending 3½ millions on the film and will drop a million of it in Phoenix, the base of operations 60 miles from the location.

The movie magicians have created an authentic replica of China, says Lt. Col. Frank Gleason, technical adviser. He is the Army man whose demolition trek through China in 1944 inspired the Theodore White novel.

Only glaring notes on the landscape are the towering cacti. These are camouflaged by the movie men. Federal law prohibits tampering with the plants.

I watched while the Chinese—125 from Phoenix, 75 brought from Hollywood—trooped up the mountain road in the 100-degree-plus sun. Also making the journey was James Stewart, whom I saw just two months ago amid the snow fields of Ishpeming, Mich. He was making "Anatomy of a Murder" then.

Jimmy muttered, "When I was a bachelor, I made all my pictures in the comfortable confines of studios."

"Then I get a wife and four wonderful children, and what happens? I start making movies all over the globe."

In nine years he has made only two pictures—"Rear Window" and "Bell, Book and Candle"—entirely in Hollywood. How does his wife Gloria like this setup?

"Not so good," he admitted. "I don't expect her to visit me on this picture. She and the kids have a house at Malibu for the summer — and I don't think she'd want to leave it for this heat."

Information About Federal Special Excise Tax Act

Changes provided by the Excise Tax Technical Changes Act of 1958 affecting persons liable for Special Occupational Taxes are explained by District Director of Internal Revenue, John H. Binger.

Special taxes must be paid on or before July 1, 1959, or before commencing business, to avoid penalties and interest. Taxpayers no longer have until the end of the month of July to file applications and pay the tax.

Effective July 1, 1959, a change has been made in the special tax stamp rates for wholesale and retail dealers in liquor, beer, and wine. The new annual tax rates to be paid are as follows:

- Wholesale Dealer in Beer $123
- Retail Dealer in Beer 24
- Wholesale Liquor Dealer 255
- Retail Liquor Dealer 54
- Wholesale Dealer in Wines 255
- Retail Dealer in Wines 54
- Wholesale Dealer in Wines and Beer 255
- Retail Dealer in Wines and Beer 54

Retail and wholesale dealers are redefined as follows: A retail dealer is one who sells only to consumers. Such a dealer is no longer liable for tax as a wholesaler in those instances where he sells five gallons or more to the same customer.

A wholesale dealer is one who sells to other dealers. Wholesale dealers may sell liquors of the class covered by their wholesale stamps at their place of business to persons other than dealers, without incurring tax as a retail dealer.

Special tax stamps cannot be issued unless the correct

Timely Reminder Of Importance To All Veterans

The Warren County Veterans Affairs Committee which includes all of the local Veterans Organizations within Warren County have contacted the Veterans Affairs Office and the Registrar and Records Office in regards to Veterans Discharges and Form 214 Separation Papers.

The Warren County Veterans Affairs Committee recommends to all Veterans the importance of having their Discharges and Form 214 Separation Papers Recorded and Registered at the Court House and Photostatic Copies made. Particularly is this important to the veteran who served in the Korean Conflict. Many claims in the form of bonuses, V. A. Hospitalization, Claims and Services which are a benefit to the Veteran or his Widow have been denied or delayed because of lack of proper information which was not available at the particular time of need.

Through the co-operation of the Veterans Affairs Office and the Registrar and Records Office at the Court House makes this service possible to all Veterans. Free of Charge.

All Discharges with forms must first go to the Veterans Office at the Court House to Mr. Bill Karns to have Photostatic Copies made. He will have all Discharges Recorded. Or any Veteran can contact a Service Officer from any of the Veterans Organizations to have this service done.

USAF Medal Winner
Son of Local Woman

Mrs. John Donnelly, 116 Pennsylvania avenue, east, has received word that her son, Lowell W. Ayers of Coudersport, was recently awarded a gold medal by Col. Hazen H. Bedke, commander of the 4th Weather Group, "for completion of 1,000 consecutive weather observations without an error."

A clipping from the Coudersport has this to say about young Ayers:

"Airman Ayers has continued to extend his streak and has made 1,382 consecutive observations without a single error. Airman Ayers is a weather observationist at Bolling AFB, Washington, D.C., headquarters for the Headquarters Command, USAF, and headquarters of the Civil Air Patrol. The Bolling AFB Weather Station provides support for the 110th Air Base Wing and the 1229th Air Transport Squadron.

"In his capacity as weather observer, Airman Ayers is responsible for accurately measuring temperatures, wind velocity, barometric pressures, cloud type and height, visibility, and other weather elements. He must also receive and transmit weather reports over a teletype system. Performance of these duties is essential to flying safely and accurately, and to aviation forecasting.

"Airman Ayers, formerly a student in Coudersport Joint High School, has recently been promoted to airman first class in the USAF."

Letters to Editor

Warren, Pennsylvania
Editor Times-Mirror:

The meanest person apparently lives in the vicinity of Tidioute. A young woman from Warren visited her father's grave and placed a cross of flowers on the grave. Upon visiting the grave a few days later the token was gone and was found in the rubbish pile a distance away. It could not have gotten there by itself. How can some people be so mean?

GRIEF STRICKEN

Mirrored in Our Times

Well, it doesn't seem possible, but Friday night is the night that the five finalists for the Miss Warren County or 4th of July Celebrations Queen will be selected. The next thing you know, the big parade and all the other Jaycee sponsored events will be under way. Let's do a little better on hanging out those flags, too. Memorial Day and Flag Day found too few of the Stars and Stripes waving in the right places! Also be sure to support the bang-up Jaycee Fourth with your contributions to the cause.

We're tired of talking about the weather outdoors, so let's talk about the air inside for a change. Does your home continue to carry an aroma of staleness—food odor... smoke and dust. After being closed up for so many months during our long winter, just about every room falls short of smelling fresh. Kitchens, living rooms, baby's or children's rooms—all can stand purifying (cuts down on allergies, too). Those of you who watch TV have already heard a lot about the item we want to recommend to you today... a small, compact unit that all by itself will free your household of the things we've mentioned above... simply, effectively and economically. It's not an air conditioner, but an electrically designed device that really removes from the air those unpleasant impurities.

The Warren Drug Store invites you to stop in and see PURITRON for yourself—it's truly marvelous that so much good could come from such a tidy instrument. There are many interesting features about PURITRON, perhaps you've seen one in your doctor's office or in a friend's home. Do make a special trip to learn more about this asset to a healthier home atmosphere.

A crystal clear pool of water; an experienced life guard and teacher... and days and days of wet, windy, cold weather. The kids at CVCC have a right to be discouraged. Instructor Pat Madden, however, sounds a note of optimism—On Tuesday, June 23, Pat will begin group swimming lessons for beginners at 11:00 a. m.—so if the weather man cooperates, have the kids ready to participate. Those wishing to arrange for private lessons may contact "Pat" at the club and schedule same. The young golfers defied the rainy skies yesterday morning as junior golf season got under way with a vengeance!

Sunday just happens to be Father's Day—or hadn't you heard? And after he was so good to you on Mother's Day, the least you can do is make a special effort to please. Let the screens go until Monday, the weeds as well. Don't make him shave if he doesn't want to—and try to keep the kids out of his hair! And above all, don't go messing around with a guessing-game gifts—go right to the right source for a sure fire success. Choose the place where he shops for himself and don't hesitate to ask for expert advice.

For a perfect Father's Day gift, head for the place that features the "best in menswear"—they'll know just what will please him, no matter what you plan to pay (or charge to him). From a handsome tie to a smart sports coat; from a pair of socks to a selection of air-cooled summer shirts—the Style Shop will have it—and Dad will want it!

The Glade Volunteer Fire Department is sponsoring the Eastman Carnival this week. It's not far to travel... just out Conewango avenue extension a piece—the kids will enjoy it, and it's a clean set-up with several of the firemen on hand to assist in ticket sales.

One of the very best on current TV is the Gary Moore show Tuesday evening's at 10:00 p. m. It's one the whole family can enjoy, so let the kids stay up once as long as vacation time is with us.

Who But a Man Could Ever Ask Questions Like These?

Only a man could ask these questions:

"What difference does it make if Miriam has a dress just like your new one and is planning to wear it to the Saturday night dance, too?"

"Well, what have you been doing all day?"—when there are 16 guests invited for supper.

"What do you mean you don't have anything to wear? You've got a closet full of clothes."

"Isn't that a new dress?" when it's one you've been wearing for the last two years.

"Why do we have to have the Browns to our party just because we couldn't get out of going to theirs?"

"Why do you have to clean house just because you're having the bridge club for lunch?"

"If you don't like her why do you always act so glad to see her?"

"If you like it, why bother any further. What difference does it make that this is the first store you've tried?"

"How do you know she dyes her hair?"

"Why can't we just say we don't want to go. Why do we have to make excuses?"

"What's so tragic about a frizzy permanent? It will grow out, won't it?"

"You're certainly not going to send it back after you've bought and paid for it, are you?"

"If you don't like those shoes with pointed toes, why do you wear them?"

"What is that tall, skinny what's-his-name around here for? I thought Jamie said they had broken up and she was never going to speak to him again."

"Why don't you women each give a couple of dollars, instead of baking cakes to sell to each other?"

NEWS FROM COUNTY AGENT

It's sure been real haymaking weather this past week. And I notice a few farmers over the county have taken advantage of this hot, dry weather and started the job. Now is the time to make hay if you want high quality forage with the largest amount of digestible nutrients possible.

Don't wait for the timothy to come into head, and until all the blossoms are in full flower on the legumes. Mow now, and save! You really will save too — on your grain bill next winter is where it will show up the most.

Well, here we are again celebrating Dairy Month across the nation. During this month, which historically has marked the peak of milk production, attention is focused on the importance of milk as a food and beverage and upon the dairy industry.

Just think of it! Records exist of cows being milked as long ago as 9000 years B.C. That makes milk one of the oldest known foods. Hippocrates recommended milk as a medicine centuries before Christ. Sanskrit writings 6,000 years old found in the Biblical country tell how milk is one of the most essential foods.

History also tells us that a chap by the name of Gopatis, the first tribal king in the Middle East, was also the keeper of the cows. Gopatis owned the cows but the milking was a sacred rite, and performed by three priests. One stood at the cow's head — the other held her tail. The third priest was of the highest rank and he did the milking.

Evidently those old girls were "lackers" since they stationed a man to hold the tail. You know, of course, that when you hold a cow's tail straight up in the air she can't kick you. Sort of throws her out of gear, but you've really got to apply the pressure. It really works too — I've held more than one heifer's tail straight up while my brother put on the milker. I can't say that I felt like an ancient priest though.

Walt Whitman once wrote — "The dairy cow's a thing of charm. She lifts the mortgage from the farm!"

Another poet wrote these words:

"Blessings on you dairy cow. We salute you here and now. Symbol of the nation's health.

The dairy farmer's pride and wealth."

"In winter wind and summer breeze.

She labors for our milk and cheese.

And scientific tests have shown.

She puts the ice cream in the cone."

And I'll close the column by saying — "Drink More Milk."

Any thinking man will tell you to. It's Filtered.

Higher Motorist Taxes Are Aimed at Poor Man's Purse

(Special correspondence to The Times-Mirror)

HARRISBURG—Higher motorist taxes are aimed directly at the Pennsylvania working man's pocketbook, Dayton P. Clark, chairman of the Associated Petroleum Industries, asserted today.

Seven out of ten people who work depend on their automobiles to get to their jobs and these men and women in particular are hit by big highway user taxes, Clark said in opposing any increase in gasoline taxes and other fees.

"Steel workers, miners, textile workers, stenographers, clerks—you name them and Pennsylvania's got that job classification among the 35 million non-agricultural employees listed by the U. S. Department of Labor," said Clark.

Clark spoke as representative of more than 6,000 members of the petroleum industry which, with other highway user groups, is opposing Secretary of Highways Martin's request to increase the per gallon gasoline tax by one cent, automobile registration by $5 and driver licenses by $2.

Gasoline is taxed almost four times as much as are luxury items and is the highest taxed essential commodity in the United States, declared Clark.

"There is absolutely no valid reason for imposing additional taxes on highway transportation," Clark asserted, pointing out that present taxes are adequate to provide the good roads Pennsylvania needs.

"There is a limit to what John Q. Motorist, the automobile owner, the highway user or however one wishes to refer to him, can endure," Clark continued. It is the feeling of our industry that he has gone far beyond the point of silent suffering in the matter of taxes.

"A recent survey revealed that 35 per cent of the households with incomes below $2,000 a year and 59 per cent of the households in the $2,000 to $2,999 bracket own automobiles. These people have to watch every penny now to keep the family car going. As a matter of fact, these families would be compelled to drive less because on a $3 purchase they only get $2.16 worth of gasoline since the governments (State and Federal) get the 84 cents. These are the people who cannot afford these increases.

"Important also is the fact that 68 per cent of people depend on their cars to get to their jobs. These people would bear the brunt of this gasoline tax increase because they are the ones responsible for the large portion of Pennsylvania's gasoline consumption.

"Highway user taxes and fees could well result in diminishing revenue. After all, we should be mindful that Pennsylvania motorists can do something about high gasoline taxes—they can alter their motoring habits and drive less with the resultant decline in fuel tax revenue."

Bible Words for Today

I CORINTHIANS 15:10 "By the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain." (RSV)

The beginning of wisdom is a recognition that we are not self made men but that it is by the grace of God that we are where we are in life and have what we have. We might as easily have been born in a different country or with a different pigment in our skins but for the grace of God. This recognition will humble us for we will recognize how little we deserve his goodness and how dependent we are upon him for everything.

To the devout man there will be more, for he will want to respond to such love by seeking to measure up to God's confidence in him. Paul certainly was aware of God's conversion of his life and in response gave himself completely to the service of God. We can do no less if we become aware "that we are not our own but that we were brought with a price."

The Rev. Arthur W. Newell
St. John's United Church of Christ
Richmond, Va.

World Today

unable to speak for himself — is too disabled to act as president. Then Nixon will act for him. The word act in this is important.

Nixon won't take the oath of office as president. He will not become president. He will turn the job back to Eisenhower if the latter recovers. Eisenhower, not Nixon, will decide whether the president's disability has ended.

But suppose, when Eisenhower thought his disability was over, Nixon didn't. What then? No answer.

When this agreement was announced March 3, 1958, Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, leader of the House Democrats, became critical at once. He argued that a vice president who attempted to carry out the president's duties must take the oath of office as president and, once he has done so, the elected but ailing president is out of office.

The then Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell insisted the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement was constitutional. But the immediate dispute over its legality was a clear warning of trouble ahead if Nixon ever did take over under this agreement.

The Senate subcommittee's proposed constitutional amendment would bring the president's cabinet into the act in deciding whether he was too disabled to carry out his duties — if he couldn't or wouldn't do it himself — and then Congress would have a hand in deciding whether his disability was over, if he thought it was but the vice president disagreed.

AROUND THE WORLD

SHIP MODEL—All at sea, Erica Williams, a member of the Women's Royal Navy Service in England, looks like a shipwrecked Lady Gulliver at Portsmouth. She's posing at a special exhibit of ship models to be used in a pageant showing how a convoy in some future war would be protected by its own atom-powered, anti-submarine sub.

HERE'S HOW—This new design, the "television glass," is the work of Claus Josef Riedel, in Kufstein, Tyrol, Austria. It's 23½ inches high, blown in one piece except for the base, and holds a pint of liquor.

SCAPEGOAT—Pert little Barbara Cook, who's 4½, is happy to display her rear-guard bodyguard as she skates merrily along a sidewalk in Winnipeg, Man., Canada. The idea is that if Barbara falls over backward, that big rag doll will take the lumps and Babs will suffer only loss of her dignity.

NO FIT—That boot looks almost B-52 size, but little Chuckie Redpenning Jr. will never get it off the ground at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla. Size 15½, it was ordered from the base clothing store by an airman who must be a refugee from a hard-marching infantry outfit.

MANTLE PIECE—An imaginative cape adds an eye-stopping touch to a new sport jacket which was introduced at a showing in Buffalo, N. Y. Print challis lines the cape, done in hop-sacking to match the jacket, which has a touch of Norfolk styling.

SHE'S SO RIGHT—Even a hard-working championship swimmer like Britain's Judy Grimham can get a kick out of fooling around in the water. She's beating the heat under a man-made waterfall at a pool in Worthing, England.

PARADE—Women's auxiliary forces of the Swiss Army are rolling past spectators during one of the largest parades ever held at the airfield in Payerne. The Swiss WAFFs are used widely as liaison agents and drivers. That's their flag in the center.

RIDING HERD—It looks like the Old West cattle drive has a modern counterpart at Ham-track, Mich., where 133 new cars were ready to start a mass journey. The new autos were lined up at a plant to be driven away in a giant caravan by dealers for customers in northern New York State. The cavalcade stretched for an entire mile.

THE RIGHT IDEA—Because it's just as hot these hot days in Miami Beach, Fla., as anywhere else, 4-year-old Mark Ruthe wore his dad's long underwear and sat on a 300-pound cake of ice. It's all kind of foolish, but fun.

FULL FLOWER—Early summer looks like this in the town of West Malling, Kent, England. The blossoms rise in front of the quaint shapes of east houses, which are kilns used for drying hops or malt.

GETTING A LIFT—The 8,000-ton freighter Benledi is listing a bit (right) as her lifting gear raises a 100-ton tugboat into position to be swung aboard from the Thames River in London, England. The tug was purchased by a group of companies in Canada and is being sent by sea freight to St. John's, Newfoundland. It will be refitted there before being put into service on the St. Lawrence River.

COAT ON THE HOOF—As he left Lima, Peru, Edward Tomlinson was given an unexpected gift. The roving Latin American correspondent was flying back to Washington, D. C., to celebrate the publication of his new book, "Look Homeward, Uncle." He had not expected to be presented with a live vicuna on the happy occasion.

OUT OF THE DEPTHS—While fishing in Robico Lake in Memphis, Tenn., Alfred Sims (left), and his brother Neil spied a strange object in the water. They lifted it out and it happened to be "Bronze Baby," a valuable statue which had been stolen from an art gallery two weeks earlier. It's now back in its rightful place.

ADAPTATION—A modern treatment of a little girl's dress style that was popular about 50 years ago is made of calico in this green floral print. It has a velveteen laced bodice worn over a frilly white blouse with three-quarter sleeves and is authentic down to the black stockings.

O'Brien Shatters His Own Record In the Shot Put

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — With only 65 persons watching, Olympic champion Parry O'Brien shattered his own world record in the shot put Tuesday night with a heave of 63 feet, 8 inches. O'Brien's listed record, 63 feet, 2 inches, was made in Los Angeles in 1956. The big ex-University of Southern California star was competing at Mt. San Antonio College in a special competition designed to give him a chance at the record. He had made several good puts in the Southern Pacific AAU meet last Saturday and said he liked the ring at Pomona and would like a few more tries. He fouled on the first try, broke the record on the second, then had, in order, 61-7/4, 60-1/2, 62-1/4, 61-4. His competitors were Bob Humphries of the Southern California Striders, 57-4, and Bob Wade, unattached, 54-9/4. Southern California freshman Dallas Long had tied O'Brien's existing mark earlier this season. The two will compete Friday and Saturday in Boulder, Colo., at the National AAU meet. O'Brien's record undoubtedly will be recognized, said Alex Petrie, an AAU official.

Hoak Continues To Swing Hot Bat for the Pirates

CHICAGO (AP) — Third baseman Don Hoak of the Pittsburgh Pirates is swinging one of the hottest bats in the National League. Hoak had two singles and drove in two runs in the ninth inning with a bases-loaded double to lead the Pirates to a 5-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday. Hoak's hits lifted his season average to .321 and extended his hitting streak at 14 consecutive games. The victory put the Pirates three games off the pace of the league-leading Milwaukee Braves. The Pirates went into the ninth deadlocked at 1-1 with the Cubs.

D'Amato, a Retailer, Is Lost Selling Patterson Wholesale

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA) — Jack Kearns was in New York for the Kenny Lane-Carlos Ortiz fight, but the talk at Jack Dempsey's Restaurant quickly swung around to the heavyweights and the Floyd Patterson-Johansson match at Yankee Stadium, June 25.

"I don't like to talk about Patterson and Johansson," said Kearns, manager of champions and builder of million-dollar gates, "but they've sure butchered it."

"Every time Cus D'Amato opened his mouth he knocked $25,000 or more off the gate. This show would have done real well had they been able to gag D'Amato. Here is an international match between a Swede who can punch and a champion who has been knocked down. It had a million dollars stamped all over it."

Irwin Roscoe dropped in to tip fight writers that Johansson was overtrained.

"What from," asked one of the writers, "commuting between Grossinger and New York in a helicopter?"

ROSE, BEATING THE DRUMS for the TelePrompTer closed circuit television version of the scrap, was seeking some sort of gimmick to steam up a ticket sale retarded by Eddie Machen's suit for breach of contract and whatnot. Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman did not deny Machen an injunction until June 9.

How could tickets be sold for a fight so one was certain would take place?

"D'Amato didn't help things when he threatened to take the fight out of New York," stressed Kearns.

"I don't know what Patterson has been thinking about, letting D'Amato keep him away from all the guys he could have knocked out while improving himself—Machen, Zora Folley, Willie Pastrano, Nino Valdez, Mike DeJohn, Alex Miteff and Pat McMurry. D'Amato should have had his fighter knock out the International Boxing Club instead of trying to do it by making speeches about Jim Norris."

"D'Amato spent too many years in that stuffy, little gymnasium on 14th St. Cus is like a man who ran a little grocery store for years and suddenly stumbled on a product which had to be sold wholesale, and didn't know what to do with it."

"Suspicious of everybody, he became afraid of his own shadow. The result is that even Patterson himself doesn't know whether he can fight. If you throw out Archie Moore, and no one can account for that one, Patterson really hasn't boxed anyone of consequence."

KEARNS SHOOK HIS HEAD visualizing what Tex Rickard or Mike Jacobs or even Jim Norris would have done with the Patterson-Johansson fight.

"Why, we brought in Georges Carpentier, a washed-up, over-stuffed middleweight, for Dempsey and drew $1,789,235," he recalled, licking his chops.

"But fight writers wrote more than financial statements in those days. They didn't have to be concerned about a puppet promoter and the ancillary rights didn't amount to enough to be worthy of mention."

"And all the public cares about right now," concluded OF Doc Kearns, "is whether the Big Swede can fight."

Major League Stars

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitching — Art Ditmar, Yankees, gave up only four hits for 5-1 victory over the White Sox, walking but one, striking out four and allowing only a pair of singles over the final eight innings.

Hitting — Don Hoak, Pirates, had three hits in four trips breaking a 1-1 tie with a two-out, two-run double in the ninth inning for 5-2 victory over the Cubs.

Indians Continue to Ride Hottest Streak of Season

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's Indians are riding their hottest streak of the season and Cal McLish is back in stride—a winner for the first time in more than a month, but still trying to shake a shutout jinx.

The big right-hander, whose lone whitewash job in the majors came eight years ago, pitched the Indians to their seventh straight success and a full-game lead in the American League race with a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night.

It was the fifth time this season McLish has come close to nailing that long-pursued second shutout. He missed by inches when Marty Keough's seventh-inning drive ticked outfielder Rocky Colavito's glove and got away for a home run.

The New York Yankees helped Cleveland along by defeating Chicago's second place White Sox 5-1, Detroit at Baltimore and Kansas City at Washington were rained out.

The Yankees moved within a single game of fourth place Baltimore behind the four-hit pitching of Art Ditmar (5-4), who won his fourth in a row. The Sox scored in the first inning on a double by Nellie Fox and Sherm Dollar's single, then managed only a pair of singles by Norm Cash the rest of the way.

Billy Pierce (7-7) was the loser, checking the Yanks on three hits until they broke a 1-1 tie with two runs in the sixth on Mickey Mantle's triple, a hit batter, Hee Lopez' double and Bobby Richardson's sacrifice fly.

Big Newk Is Winningest Pitcher On Redleg's Staff

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

There were snickers last spring when Manager Mayo Smith figured the big guy on his pitching staff might be Don Newcombe. Sure, Newk had won 27 in 1958, but he was washed up, hadn't been able to win 20 over two seasons since.

So who's the ace of the Reds staff? Big Newk, winner of six straight, all complete games, with a 3.00 earned run average and 4-0 against the slugging San Francisco Giants after he chopped them down again Tuesday night 2-1.

It was Newcombe's seventh victory of the season, matching his total for last year when he lost 13. Thus one slipped the Giants two games behind the National League leading Milwaukee Braves who came off with a 5-4 victory at Los Angeles.

Pittsburgh tightened its hold on third, just a game behind the Giants, by beating the Chicago Cubs 5-2. St. Louis swept a two-night pair from Philadelphia, 8-1 and 5-2.

Lew Burdette won his 10th

Sportsmen's Dream Is Back in Committee

HARRISBURG (AP) — The sportsmen's dream of fishways providing means for fish to pass through the dams on the Lower Susquehanna seemed a long way from reality again today.

The new fish code was back in the House Fisheries Committee where Chairman William B. Curwood (D-Luzerne) said plans were to strike from it a provision requiring the State Fish Commission to construct the passageways at the Sale Harbor and Holtwood Dams.

Curwood said the commission objected to being held solely responsible for the construction.

Worm Pickers Busy Each Night on Toronto Courses

TORONTO (AP) — Shortly after the last golfer has left the 18th hole on many of Toronto's golf courses each evening, a small army of workers moves in. They're not after pars or birdies, but dew worms.

One firm, Brennan Brothers Live Bait Company, sends out 350 to 400 worm-pickers on 14 courses in the metropolitan Toronto area. Rights to gather worms on the properties are leased by the company under contracts.

This year the company hopes to sell 100,000 worms for fishermen, mostly in the United States for about $500,000.

The company's plant has a walk-in refrigerator where as many as 15,000,000 worms can be kept in a state of hibernation — at about 34 degrees — before shipment in boxes to dealers in Ontario, Quebec and the United States.

"Toronto and Hamilton have the best worm belts on the continent," said Dave Brennan, because climate and soil conditions are perfect.

Good pickers get about 12,000 worms each night. Skill is needed to spot the worms instantly in the beam of a headlamp and to pick them before their quick retreat.

Soda Mineral, Betts Machine Nines Post City Loop Wins on Scoreboard

Soda Mineral pitcher Bob Harrison limited Solar Electric to five scattered hits on the West Side diamond of City Softball League Tuesday night as Solar fell off the short end of a 7-5 tally. Knights from Betts Machine scored another victory Monday, defeating Warren Indies.

Harrison also proved big man at the plate for S-M, bashing out a triple in second inning. Bill Brown had two hits in four times up, one a three-bagger.

Harrison walked one Solar batter. He never found himself in serious trouble in the game.

Bob Schmadner struckout two Soda boys and allowed two bases on balls. At bat, Schmadner collected a triple. Hughes and Graziano got doubles for Solar.

As Harrison held Solar scoreless for first two innings, Soda Mineral was busy stacking a 4-run lead. Winners crossed another over top of third. Solar whittled the lead in bottom of third when two runs were registered.

Thursday on Sheffield Memorial Field, Soda Mineral will play the Sheffield nine.

Monday, Betts Machine Shop beat Warren Indies 18-15 on State Hospital diamond in City loop action.

Both teams struck for singles in first inning, and again matching in the second with three runs. Black Knights pulled from the deadlock with three third inning runs. They were never headed after that, substantially building up the margin with 7 runs in fourth, leading 14-6.

Top of fifth Indies started cutting away at the bulge and narrowed the margin to 14-10, holding Betts scoreless in their half. Top of sixth, the Indies took another cut at the lead, trimming it to a knotted 14-14. Betts swung a big bat in their half to score 4 and take a deciding lead. Indies pushed one run across top of seventh to clinax the action.

Homers by Berry and McCoud were responsible for the tying runs in the sixth. Reese

Akins To His Comeback Trail In Ring Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Virgil Akins, who used to be welterweight champion, hits what he hopes will be the comeback trail tonight against undefeated Luis Rodriguez, the Cuban welter king.

Akins is 7-5 favorite to stop the speedy Rodriguez in their nationally televised 10-round fight in the Miami Beach exhibition hall.

Akins boasts a 49-21 record and claims he had a letdown after winning the title from Miami Beach's Vince Martinez last June. He lost the crown to Don Jordan and failed to regain it in a return bout.

Hilda, as Others, Spurns Baseball for Horse Track

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Hilda Chester doesn't want to be a television star. It doesn't bother her unless the price is right. Hilda, in case it has slipped your memory, was once the most vocal of the faithful that used to crowd Ebbets Field to root for the late Brooklyn Dodgers.

At Ebbets Field everyone knew when she arrived. She'd ring her cowbell and carry a sign announcing that "Hilda Chester Is Here." Hilda roamed around greeting her public and acknowledging their cheers.

"I've been working here," said the plump redhead, "since the Dodgers left for Los Angeles. A lot of my fans see me behind the counter and say hello."

What does Hilda think of Walter O'Malley moving the Dodgers? "They should not have allowed it. It's terrible not to have games in Brooklyn. What about the Little Leaguers who use to watch them? And how about my fans?" she said.

NOWADAYS MISS CHESTER wanders into Yankee Stadium, but after Ebbets Field, the prim Yankee atmosphere is like walking into a cathedral to Hilda.

"There's a nice little man," she said, "who gives me a seat behind third base. I don't root for anybody but the umpires. I like to yell at them. Even though they like me at the Stadium, they won't let me ring my cowbell. They don't like you to make a lot of noise."

Hilda was a Dodger fan for quite a number of years, but she refuses to say how many. Like most TV and movie stars, she refuses to reveal her age.

Does Hilda follow the Dodgers now? "I'm not a Los Angeles fan," she said. "I don't worry about them. The only contact I've had with them was when Roy Campanella's kid got in trouble. I went to Campy's wife to see if I could help her."

"I LOOKED AROUND" when I got to Campy's house and got mad when I didn't see Jackie Robinson. When I left I called Jackie on the phone and said, "Why aren't you there?" "I'm too busy," Jackie said. "You're not too busy to go to dinner, though," I told him and I slammed the phone down.

"I wouldn't go to see the Dodgers even if they came back. I want to be a Florence Nightingale and work in one of the hospitals that are having strike trouble. They won't let me."

"I'll go to Yankee Stadium and root for my umpires instead. There's no need for anyone worrying about Casey Stengel. Casey doesn't need any of your worrying. He's doing a good job. And—" "Gimme a frank," said a hungry better.

"Can't you see I'm being interviewed?" said Hilda Chester.

High honor was accorded Dr. Philip Schwartz, chief of Warren State Hospital Pathology Department, at the annual convention of the American Medical Association, held last week in Atlantic City.

Out of 387 scientific exhibits shown at the convention, six were chosen for awards as having outstanding merit. Dr. Schwartz's exhibit on Cerebral

Apoplexy: Types, Causes, and Pathogenesis was one of the six chosen. His award was the Bronze Billings Medal.

Dr. Schwartz's honor is even more unique because his work was the only one from a state hospital laboratory. All other exhibits were from university or other research and teaching hospitals.

Dr. Schwartz, who has headed Warren State's pathology division since 1953, is the author of more than a hundred scientific papers based on his pathological studies. He came to America from University of Istanbul, where he had organized and directed the pathology department of that medical school. He was also formerly Professor of Pathology at Germany's famed Frankfurt University.

Technical drawings in the exhibit were done by Dr. Sami Daygan, M.D., art therapist and medical artist at Warren State.

Little Restaurant Snack Is Again Exempt In Sales Tax

HARRISBURG (AP)—That little restaurant snack is once again exempt from the sales tax if the check is 50 cents or less.

Gov. Lawrence signed into law Tuesday night legislation restoring the 50-cent exemption for the 3-1-1 per cent sales tax on restaurant meals. The previous exemption—dating back to April 15—had been 10 cents.

The chief executive took time out from a legislative reception at his Indian town Gap summer house to sign the bill only a few hours after it had cleared the general Assembly.

The Commonwealth will lose 14 million dollars in potential revenue for the next two years as a result of the action. But the governor said it will be almost made up by an unexpected increase of 13 million dollars in revenue estimates from existing taxes.

Lawrence, in an accompanying statement, said enactment of the remaining 207 million dollars of his deadweight tax program also would make up the loss.

The tax cut is one of the very few since the end of World War II.

Others since then were the old cent-a-bottle soft drinks tax in 1950 and the restoration of the manufacturers' exemption from the five-mill capital stock tax in 1957.

The senate voted 49-1 Monday to pass the restaurant tax exemption. The only dissenting vote had come from Sen. Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster). There wasn't a word of opposition from the lawmakers as the measure rolled on through the legislative mill.

Sen. James S. Berger, Republican floor leader, said the vote was significant in that it represented the first break in the governor's original 400-million-dollar tax package.

Other legislative developments: Budget—Senate Republicans continued hard at work on behind-the-scenes efforts to cut the governor's proposed $1,870,000,000 budget for the next two years by from 40 to 60 million dollars.

Highway Safety—The governor's highway safety program, including a plan to legalize radar in prosecuting speeders, was side-tracked in the House to permit further study by a special committee.

Chautauqua County, N. Y., has two claims filed against it, each for $100,000, for the alleged "wrongful deaths" of two Rochester motorists who were drowned in French Creek March 6. William L. Rice, 30, and his sister, Joyce Rice Houle, 25, both of Rochester, were the victims, and were passengers in an auto driven by Donald Stone, 26, of Brighton. equipment to pass, aiding the fire units in cutting time.

Each company was timed from the time they received the call until their arrival at Beaty and again on time used in preparing to pump water after they were directed into position.

Each department draught water from Conewango creek alone for about five minutes. As a grand finale, each department ran off two streams of water into the air, making a water curtain across Conewango Creek.

The units were capable of pumping 8,750 gallons per minute. Nearly 1,000 feet of 2½-inch hose was laid. Approximately 150 firemen took part in the exercise.

Fire departments included Clarendon, Columbus, Garland, Glade, North Warren, Pleasant, Russell, Sheffield, Starbrick, Sugar Grove, Warren, Wrightsville and Youngsville.

Borough Police Chief Mike Evan put eight auxiliary police officers on duty at strategic intersections to assist the departments in reaching their destination without a great loss of time.

attacked a U.S. Navy patrol plane over the Sea of Japan Monday.

One member of the crew was seriously wounded in the encounter.

Eisenhower was asked for comment on reports the U.S. crewmen were unable to fire back because of missing gun parts.

He replied that the whole episode is being studied carefully.

OLYMPIC GAMES

The International Olympics Games Committee seems to be getting into politics, rather than dealing exclusively with international athletics, Eisenhower said.

He made that remark when asked for comment on the committee's refusal to recognize Nationalist China, as such, as one of the nations which will participate in the 1960 game.

LEGISLATION—Eisenhower said he has no specific plans at this time for carrying the fight for his legislative program directly to the people. He had been asked to elaborate on a statement earlier this week by Sen. Thurston Morton of Kentucky, the Republican national chairman, that the President was considering the idea of making a series of speeches on behalf of his program.

STRAUSS—Eisenhower said he intends to exert every possible personal influence in an effort to win Senate confirmation of Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce. If that is lobbying, he said, then, he is guilty of lobbying.

DE GAULLE—Eisenhower said that if any errand should take him to Europe, he certainly would make a special effort to confer with Gen. Charles de Gaulle, France's President.

WHEAT—Eisenhower took a swat at a wheat bill on which Congress is close to completing action. It would increase price support payments for wheat in certain circumstances.

N. J., who was visiting his mother-in-law, Victoria Canova, just off Route 28. The robbed liquor store is just up the road.

In seconds, a police car, with two troopers in it, arrived at the Canova home.

Trooper John Lacasse of New Bedford, one of the policemen who shot down young Coyle said:

"We walked in the woods there and I saw them crouched down in a thicket about 25 feet away. Trooper Paul Keating, who was right beside me, yelled. They fired a shot or two at us then we fired back.

"The younger one was shot in the head."

Lacasse took two revolvers from the wounded brother.

The brothers originally were wanted for holding up a supermarket on Cape Cod last December.

On June 5, while he was patrolling his beat in North Philadelphia, Officer James F. Kane was shot down. Police learned the Coyleys had an apartment nearby. In it they found many milk bottles which had been stolen from steps in the neighborhood.

The next day the brothers kidnapped Sedgwick in his own car.

The brothers have been indicted for Kane's murder. They also were charged with kidnapping.

The boys were born in Philadelphia. They are orphans. Today is the first time they ever were arrested.

story room was the only one on during most of the night. The governor slept from midnight to 4 a. m.

At 6 a. m. he waded to newsmen who kept an all-night vigil outside the hospital because of reports he might leave during the night.

Long, resisting treatment in John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, said he would consent to treatment in Louisiana if released. His agreement apparently started the move to have him released.

Bedford Fine, one of the governor's three court-appointed lawyers, said he thought if the family withdrew its committal petition "the court would go along."

Blanche Long, the governor's wife, was expected to leave Baton Rouge, La., on a National Guard plane today.

She is expected to be accompanied by Louisiana Adjutant General Raymond Huff and Dr. Martin O. Miller, who will fly the governor back to New Orleans.

The freedom move, although avoiding a family court squabble, left unanswered the question of Long's status as governor.

Gas Tank Explosion Spurs House to Action

HARRISBURG (AP)—A propane gas truck explosion near Pottsville June 2 has triggered a request for a legislative study of Pennsylvania laws governing of school bus operations.

Rep. Gus Yatron (D-Berks), recalling the tragedy in which 11 persons were killed, introduced a resolution in the House Tuesday asking for a study by the Joint State Government Commission the legislature's research arm.

Yatron noted that the tanker had stopped behind a school bus which was picking up children. A tractor-trailer rammed the rear of the gas truck, setting it afire. In less than an hour, the tanker exploded, killing a fireman and nine spectators. The 11th victim died in a Pottsville Hospital last week.

Teams Negotiating On How to Negotiate

NEW YORK (AP)—Top-level teams representing the steel industry and the United Steelworkers Union are now negotiating on how to negotiate.

No conclusion on the way in which contract negotiations are to be conducted was reached at a 2½-hour session Tuesday. The talks resume today.

The industry wants the negotiations to continue between four-man teams representing the union and the 12 largest steel companies.

The union, saying that weeks of this type of talk has gotten nowhere, wants company-by-company bargaining.

The stalemate may be broken by an agreement to conduct both kinds of talks simultaneously.

The industry-wide talks would be concerned with wages, hours and other major contract provisions while the company-by-company negotiations would deal with local problems.
